2. PROCEDURE – CIF INCOTERMS (UPDATED 2025)

1. Limura issues FCO (This offer)
2. Buyer signs FCO and returns it to the Limura
3. Limura submits Sales & Purchase Contract to Buyer
4. Signing and acceptance of the Sales & Purchase Contract (SPA)
5. Both parties lodge copy of the SPA with their respective Banks
6. Limura provides to Buyer POP (SKR) for the initial tranche and current Assay Report and copy of a Letter to banker or warehouse manager giving him instructions to allow buyer to verify the existence of the gold and the pertinent information on said gold.
7. Buyer arranges a payment guarantee for the gold from a top 100 World Bank.
8. The Limura checks the product into Security & Transport Company for buyer destination
9. Security & Transport Company delivers the Gold Bullion to the Buyer's designated place of destination.
10. All costs of the Final Assay after delivery to be at the expenses of the Buyer
11. Payment by MT 103 SWIFT transfer to the Limura certified official bank account as mentioned on the Final Commercial Invoice, no later than the Three (3) Banking Days after the publication of the Final Assay Report of the product supplied.
12. Once payment in full has been made for each tranche, the title of the gold shall be immediately transferred from the Limura to the Buyer. Every payment will only be based on the Final Assay Report issued by an acceptable Assayer considering the "net weight" and "purity" of the metal and will be recognized and accepted by both parties.

3. DOCUMENTATION

Limura will provide the following documents to Buyer prior to the arrival of the Gold Bullion when Sellers Representative arrives at the place of destination:
